LINCOLNSHIRE LAW FIRM COMMITS TO THREE YEAR SPONSORSHIP DEAL FOR BELTON INTERNATIONAL HORSE TRIALS

Lincolnshire based law firm, Bridge McFarland, has agreed a 3 year sponsorship deal to become the naming rights sponsor for Saturday at Belton International Horse Trials, which takes place in the grounds of Belton House, near Grantham. This is a huge boost for the prestigious event, which this year is due to be held on 24-26 April, and also for the sport of eventing generally which sadly has seen several events cancelled this season due to a loss of sponsorship.

Speaking about the sponsorship deal, Bridge McFarland's Chief Executive Officer Darryn Hedges said "our agreement to a three year sponsorship of Belton Horse Trials reflects our commitment to the equine and agricultural community in Lincolnshire and nationally. We are delighted to be associated with this prestigious event and look forward to entertaining our many clients and guests".

Commenting on the new sponsors, Stuart Buntine of BEDE Ltd, the organisers of Belton, said "we are delighted to welcome Bridge McFarland to Belton this year. As one of the country's leading Equestrian Law firms, we look forward to working with Bridge McFarland for the benefit of the sport".

Bridge McFarland's sponsorship of Belton coincides with the launch of their specialist Equine Law Department which opened in October last year and which is headed-up by Equine Law Barrister, Jane Bennett. Commenting on the sponsorship deal, Jane said "I am delighted to be part of a Firm that is so enthusiastic about lending its support to eventing, about which I am personally very passionate. I have competed at Belton on two previous occasions and am aware that it is regarded as one of the highlights on the eventing calendar. I hope that our level of commitment clearly demonstrates how serious we are about the services we offer to the equestrian community across the country."

Bridge McFarland is a leading regional law firm with a strong local, national and international reputation in specific niche areas of law.

The firm is recognised for its strength and depth across the diverse range of legal services it has to offer and is committed to delivering a quality driven service designed around the specific requirements of its clients.

The firm is committed to corporate social responsibility as a large employer in the region through support and sponsorship of local sports and charitable organisations. The firm encourages its people to take active roles in their local communities.

Bridge McFarland has offices in Grimsby, Hull, Lincoln, Louth, Mablethorpe, Market Rasen and Skegness.
